

SAFETY Act Designation

ASIS guidelines have received a Designation award under the Department of Homeland Security, Support Anti-terrorism by Fostering Effective Technology Act of 2002 (the SAFETY Act). Specifically, the SAFETY Act designation limits ASIS' liability for acts arising out of the use of the guidelines in connection with an act of terrorism and precludes claims of third party damages against organizations using the guidelines as a means to prevent or limit the scope of terrorist acts.